

You can help track and prevent the next outbreak, right?

Probably not. But CUPE Local 79 members will.

Last year, Public Health workers investigated more than 45,000 cases of infectious disease and made sure that more than 150,000 students had the vaccines they need. It's time to stand up for the people who take care of our city.

Learn more at cupelocal79.org

